THURROCK URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL

PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT,
COUNCIL OFFICES,
GRAYS, ESSEX.

TO THE CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE
THURROCK URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I beg to present my Annual Report for the year 1945, and my twenty-first Annual Report for the district as a whole. It will be observed that with the conclusion of hostilities, the report is upon a somewhat larger scale than heretofore, and includes certain statistics as to the wartime activities of the Hospitals of the district.

Despite the conclusion of hostilities, many difficulties remain in maintaining essential Public Health services, especially in the provision of equipment and buildings.

The re-organisation of the Thurrock Hospital to re-open for the reception of patients suffering from tuberculosis should be noted, and the extension made during the year to the Civil Ambulance Service.

I am very much indebted to the whole of the members of the staff of the Public Health Department and should wish to place on record, for the information of the Council, my appreciation of the work they have carried out during the year under review. I should also like to place on record my gratitude for the continued support of members of the Council, and officials of other departments.

I am,

Your obedient servant,

W. T. G. BOUL,
Medical Officer of Health.

Prior to the outbreak of the war, arrangements were made for the hospitals of the district to play their full part in the Emergency Medical Service and it was arranged that each of the three hospitals should receive Air Raid Casualties from those portions of the district adjacent to them. Nothing but praise can be given to the staffs concerned, and by courtesy of the Officers responsible, I give below certain figures as to these war-time activities.

It should be remembered that as far as possible the normal activities of the hospital were carried on.

Especial measures were taken to evacuate civilian patients at the outbreak of war, and again, especially at Orsett Lodge Hospital and Tilbury Hospital, prior to "D" Day. In the case of Orsett Lodge Hospital, an extensive blood transfusion service was built up and resulted in over 1,000 bottles of blood being collected for use in Army and Civilian Casualties.

The principal sources of supply have been enumerated in previous reports and no alteration in the same has occurred during the year. In connection with six of the foregoing unsatisfactory Rinsing samples, on investigation it was ascertained that the trouble lay in the fact that the sterilising chest was leaking at the back, with the result that sterilising temperature was not obtained. A new sterilising chest was provided and the matter put right.

The remaining unsatisfactory sample was in respect of a churn delivered at a farm, and it was clear that the churn had been improperly sterilised. The matter was taken up with the Company concerned.

All the above samples were satisfactory.

Samples (Graded).

Forty-two samples of Tuberculin Tested milk and three of Accredited milk have been taken during the year, of these eleven were unsatisfactory.

Of the foregoing, four of the unsatisfactory samples were indicated by the Analyst to be too old, so in the circumstances there is some justification in saying the samples may have been satisfactory if the analysis had been made in time. The remainder were investigated and, excepting one instance, no definite cause was discovered. The instance referred to was a concealed defect in a sterilising chest.

National Milk Testing and Advisory Scheme.

The above mentioned scheme is operated by the Essex War Agricultural Executive Committee, the Council acting as their agents.

During the year 529 samples of milk have been taken, with the undermentioned results:—

Unsatisfactory samples should be followed up by the above mentioned Essex War Agricultural Executive Committee.

TUBERCULOSIS.

Milk—Biological Test. Food and Drugs Act, 1938, Section 25.

During the year 24 samples of milk were taken and submitted to the Biological Test. Of these 18 were returned negative and 4 were not determined owing to the premature death of the guinea pigs, one was broken in transit and one sample was shown to be positive. Those samples not determined for the reasons shown were repeated, with negative results. In connection with the positive sample, the Divisional Veterinary Officer was notified. The milk was pasteurised before sale to the public.

In selecting milk for samples for biological tests regard was had to whether the milk from the particular farm was retailed to the public in its raw state. Milk which was subsequently heat treated was not sampled.

Legal Proceedings.

Four prosecutions, as set out below, were undertaken during the year:—

Milk & Dairies Order, 1926—Article 31 (2).

Filling receptacles elsewhere than on registered premises. A fine of 10/- was imposed.

Food & Drugs Act, 1938—Section 21 (2).

Unlawful use of Special Designation. A fine of 10/- was imposed.

Milk & Dairies Order, 1926—Articles 21, 23, 26.

- (a) Failure to cleanse milk utensils. Fined £2.
- (b) Failure to cleanse milking stools. Fined £3.
- (c) Failure to cleanse interior and furniture of a room used for the sale of milk. Fined £1.

Milk & Dairies Order, 1926.—Article 21.

Failure to cleanse and sterilise utensils. A fine of £5 was imposed.

WATER SAMPLES.

Twelve samples of water were taken during the year from the South Essex Waterworks Company's mains and submitted for bacteriological examination, eleven were satisfactory. Two samples were also taken from the same source and submitted for chemical examination. The total hardness in one case was 36 parts per 100,000, of which 22 parts were temporary and 14 permanent. In the second instance the total hardness proved to be 27.5 parts per 100,000 of which 17.5 parts were temporary and 10 permanent.

In addition to the foregoing, one sample of water was taken from a private well. This proved to be satisfactory.

It is appreciated that Essex water is in character hard and this is no doubt in a large measure attributable to the chalky nature of the sub-soil from which the supply is derived. There is evidence that certain neighbouring Authorities are showing an interest in the possibilities of softening the local water supply and it is mooted that a deputation from the Authorities may meet with a view to discussing the aspect of the case.

Public Swimming Bath.

Five samples were taken during the season May to September, all being satisfactory.

Unsound Meat Surrendered.

268lbs. of meat were confiscated.

Slaughterhouses.

There are no registered slaughterhouses in the area, but there are 16 licenced slaughterhouses. No regular slaughtering now occurs, the Government Slaughterhouses being closed since May, 1943.

Knackers' Yards.

There are two Knackers' Yards in the area, one of which is in constant use, whilst in respect of the remaining one there is no intention to date of its being put to use. In this instance, such use would contravene the Town and Country Planning (Interim Development) Act.

Slaughter of Animals Act, 1933.

A register of all licensed slaughtermen, pursuant to Section 3 (1) of the above mentioned Act is kept and the number so licensed is 18.

HOUSING ACT, 1936—OVERCROWDING.

During the year 175 investigations were made from which it was ascertained that 119 cases of overcrowding occurred. These were referred to the Housing Department for Council Houses when available, and although only one of these cases was relieved by action by the Local Authority, it is reasonable to assume that with the advent of new houses in 1946, a much greater proportion of overcrowding will be relieved by the Local Authority.

RATS AND MICE DESTRUCTION ACT, 1919.

THE INFESTATION ORDER, 1943.

No statutory procedure was resorted to during the year. Where infestations are known to exist the owner or occupier is contacted and an arrangement entered into whereby (1) he either engages the services of a rat-catcher or (2) a supply of rat food is furnished on the understanding that, at the appropriate moment, the department is informed, after which a supply of poisoned bait is taken to the premises by the district inspector and the procedure followed up until the rats are exterminated. No charge is made for these services.
